

Coffee & Chocolate Tasting Class

teambuilding.com partner Virtual 60 min 10 - 75 guests $80 pp

Available January 13

Can there be a better pairing than chocolate and coffee? Both are grown in similar parts of the world, the cacao and coffee beans have a lot in common, and the taste of each is enhanced by the other. Join one of teambuilding.com's verified partners' coffee educators for this 60-minute class where you'll discover secrets to tasting chocolate and coffee, and how a pairing of them works!

This class is a great option to get into the holiday season mood, and a great gift for those who love coffee and those who love chocolate - and it's especially fun for team-building or with prospective customers. You'll be working with a Coffee Kit shipped to your guests that comes with your purchase of this class: it includes three hand-selected coffees from around the world, sampling cups, tasting forms, and a detailed flavor wheel. You'll also receive three carefully curated chocolates from a Brooklyn-based chocolate shop paired to go with the coffee.

Your educator will introduce you to the bring-to-your-body-temperature chocolate-tasting technique, and the side-by-side coffee-tasting technique that pros use (no coffee maker required!). You'll taste the chocolates by themselves, the coffees by themselves and then both together as a pairing. At the very end is the big reveal, when your educator shares the origin and profile of each coffee and chocolate. You'll leave this class appreciating both chocolate and coffee in a whole new way, and there'll be plenty extra of each to enjoy after the class too!
