REBUS PUZZLE

He began to make magic rolls for hindering and terrifying, and to make some gods of wax, and some people, for enfeebling the limbs of people; and gave them into the hand of Pebekkamen, whom Ra made not to be chief of the chamber, and the other great criminals, saying: "Take them in and the k them in."

Agenda

Intro + Team Formation

As your guests arrive to the virtual meeting room, our team will greet them and give them the background needed to investigate a millennia-old murder. Next, the group will split into breakout rooms to choose a team name and roles. These activities are thoughtfully designed to ensure maximum participation and facilitate meaningful interactions and camaraderie among your attendees.

10 minutes

Engaging and unexpected series of puzzles and challenges to earn clues
Teammates work together as a team to puzzle through the clues and solve the historic murder. This portion pits teams against each other as they race to finish games and puzzles and learn clues. Challenges include math problems, code-breaking, riddles, speedy scavenger hunts, and more. Sleuths can earn 65 minutes extra clues for their teams by successfully solving puzzles. At the conclusion, teams gather to discuss theories and agree on a unified answer.

Mystery Revealed!
After revealing which team came closest to guessing the true motives, method, and culprit of the murder, the host will unveil the real, historical account of the crime in our brand's signature storytelling style. The hosts will take a group photo and lead teams out on a cheer.
