Agenda

Welcome + team formation

Hosts greet guests and create an inviting atmosphere in the virtual room, setting the tone for an exhilarating dual competition/celebration. Participants form teams in breakout rooms, pick team names, and nominate team reporters. This phase establishes a structured framework, fostering seamless group dynamics and ensuring a cohesive experience. (Pro-tip: Unleash your creativity and choose a name that embodies the theme—there might be bonus points in store for the most imaginative team!) 10 minutes

Several fast-paced rounds of games and activities

Teams compete in different mini-games! Gameplay happens in breakout rooms and in the main room, and teams will have the opportunities to discuss some answers in depth, while in other rounds racing to buzz in first and beat other teams to points! The varying formats keep the game lively, interesting, and interactive, and ensure that participants get an equal chance to shine and contribute to their team's success. 75 minutes

Announcement of winning team

Your hosts will meticulously tally up the points, announce the winners, and conduct debriefs for valuable insights. As a lasting reminder, our hosts will capture a team photo, followed by an exhilarating team cheer to wrap up the event on a high note. 5 minutes
