Agenda

Welcome
Our charming host will greet your guests and explain the event flow and activities. This step sets the tone of the experience and outlines what guests can expect for the next 90 minutes. Namely, a collaborative competition inspired by the winter holidays and classic game shows and designed to create friendships, forge bonds, build skills and inspire strong teamworkâ€” each game with a specific intention to strengthen key teamwork skills.	10 minutes
Team formation + initial challenges
In the team formation round, participants work together to choose a team name and assign a spokesperson. This phase plays a pivotal role in establishing the necessary structure and promoting positive group interactions, regardless of group size. Groups solidify dynamics and practice their teamwork with their first set of tasks.	10 minutes
Holiday Feud!
Holiday Feud Teams guess the most common (not the most correct!) response to holiday-themed poll questions and earn more points for more popular answers. We play this game round robin style so all teams get to guess on all categories. Teams typically get a chance to strategize in breakout rooms beforehand. This competition fosters a sense of individual contributors coming together to achieve collective victory.	25 minutes
Holiday Price Hike
Teams work together to guess the price of festive objects, aiming to get as close to the correct answer as possible. The farther they are from the correct answer, the more their character climbs up a cliff. If teams fall off the cliff, they are disqualified from earning more points for that round. There will be several different rounds with a number of different objects. This game promotes collective critical thinking and the ability to work together under pressure.	25 minutes
Final Quizardry
Teams get the chance to decide how many points they wager, then we ask a difficult question. If a team gets the answer correct, the points they wagered are doubled. If a team gets the answer incorrect, they lose all points they wagered. This round pairs a holiday knowledge quiz with group decision-making.	10 minutes
Winners + wrap up
Your hosts will carefully tally up the points, announcing the winners and culminating the event in a tone of celebration and unity. In commemoration of your holiday event, our team will capture a group photo, and the event will conclude with an uplifting team cheer.	10 minutes
